

contents

iida/hd product award

winners 4

greenday 6

party pics 8

words of wisdom from

graham downes 14

new design

professionals 14

show news 16

products 22

chef series 30

hd award winners 33

The winners and finalists of the 13th annual IIDA/HD product awards have been announced. Above: Wallcoverings and treatments winner, Omnia Leather/DBA Studioart, Studioart. Far above: Artwork or accent pieces winner Sensitile Systems, Jali Cascata, also took home this year's Best of Competition Award.

Best Booths

Yesterday three design experts canvassed the show floor for the annual best booth competition. This year's jury, Amy Burchette, partner/lead designer, and Craig Smith, principal, Portfolio Associates, Houston; John Cooper, principal and executive vice president development, Noble Investment Group, Atlanta; Jennifer Ramsey, president, Ramsey Purchasing, San Francisco; and Amy Jakubowski, IIDA, LEED AP, partner, BBG-BBGM, New York City, selected eight winners in five categories.

MEGA

winner: Durkan
 #3510

600 SQUARE FEET

winner: Leucos USA
 #3530
 runner up: Porcelanosa Grupo A.I.E.
 #825

400 SQUARE FEET

winner: OCL Architectural Lighting
 #1772
 runner up: Contrast Lighting
 #657

200 SQUARE FEET

winner: Owen Adam
 #272
 runner up: Farmboy Fine Arts
 #727

100 SQUARE FEET

winner: A19 Lighting
 #2364

Lantern Sky

VALLEY FORGE FABRICS,
 INC.

Booth# 3336

TEN UNDER $TEN®

modern and graphic desirable patterns
 available at an affordable price

10 11

12

13

14

15

10. Oren Sherman Limited Editions works directly with designers to develop concepts, choose sizes, materials, and colors to best suit the room, the architecture, and the location to make a memorable design statement through art. Shown here is art for the El Cortez Cabana Suites in Las Vegas, designed by Heather Hassan of Leopold Design. Visit booth #328

11. Symmons Industries has expanded its premium line to now include a complete tub and shower system with Symmons Temptrol, pressure balancing mixing valve for Naru Suite and Oxford Suite, shown here. Inspired by Oxford, England's architecture, the faucet has geometric lines and fits with contemporary and modern settings. Visit booth #1818

12. Del Lago is a new green collection from Milliken Hospitality, a carbon-negative manufacturer offering a No Carpet to Landfill Pledge. The flooring can be recycled and is certified to Sustainable Carpet Assessment Standard NSF140. Visit booth #3011

13. One of Ulster Carpets' newest products, Elements Wilton, is a collection of four textured designs: Manhattan, Mirage, Cascade and Lagoon. A cut and loop woven wilton is composed of 100 percent wool, is fitting for commercial applications. Visit booth #4510

16

17

18

14 Kravet Green aims to create eco-friendly products using all natural and sustainable yarns as well as recycled elements, such as its polyester, made of a blend of post-industrial and post-consumer fibers. Only water-based products and eco-friendly approved dyes are used. Visit booth #4326

15. For over 20 years, Mark David has provided a wide variety of furnishings for professional and hospitality spaces. Mark David will be showing off new collections by Jacques Garcia, Clodagh, Bill Sofield, and Thomas Pheasant. Visit booth #4120

16. Majestic Mirror and Frame offers ATSC/QAM digital television with hotel scanning capabilities. This can be built into any of the company's custom frames. Visit booth #5132

17. The new Point Collection from Moore and Giles highlights metallics in Moccasin Point, Bowtie Point and Palace Point patterns. The leather is set on a soft satin suede base. Visit booth #4529

18. Samuelson Furniture introduces the 9901 chair. Its body features an unusual juxtaposition of modern black leather on a gorgeous white traditional frame creates a classic balance. Visit booth #4754