NKBA president lays out 2009 goals

The newly-elected president of the National Kitchen & Bath Association, Suzie Williford, has stated four goals for the NKBA in 2009.

"The NKBA will do even more to support our members to ensure that they successfully weather this difficult economy," said Williford.

The goals are as follows:

1. The association will provide targeted professional development courses across all industry segments.
 2. The 2009 Kitchen/Bath Industry Show, April 30 to May 3 at the Georgia World Congress Center in Atlanta, will provide a variety of business conference sessions.
 3. Enable members to reduce their expenses and increase revenues through third-party affinity programs.
 4. Renew a focus on leadership opportunities for members.
